

Spring 2

Once upon a time....

In foundation we have just started our new topic, we are going to explore traditional tales.

Our first book has been the 'Runaway pancake'. We have had so much fun already making pancakes, exploring different toppings, eating them. Yummy.

We created designed our own pancakes so that we could have a pancake race. This was so much fun to do.

